Tulsa State Fair

By: Cara Grant

Every year Mr. Johnson and the show students go to the Tulsa State Fair to compete against students from all over the state in the show ring. In addition to showing animals, Mr. Johnson asked some students to participate in the livestock judging contest. The following students went to the Tulsa State Fair on behalf of Sweetwater FFA:

- Hanna Hill - lamb show, livestock judging
- Cody Keathley - livestock judging
- Klyde Parker - livestock judging
- Autumn Dyess - lamb show, livestock judging
- Veronica Watson - lamb show, livestock judging
- Cara Grant - livestock judging
- Destaney Edwards - lamb show
- Jamie Harrell - lamb show
- Langston Kennedy - lamb show
- Abby Watson - lamb show

I spoke with Veronica Watson about her experience at the Tulsa State Fair, and she said, "The students I participated with were really nice." Great job to all the students who participated at the fair, and thank you from the Sweetwater FFA Chapter for representing our chapter well!
